

The Offshore Tender is designed for the transportation of technicians and materials to offshore wind parks in the North Sea. It is especially designed to obtain a high accessibility of offshore wind turbines especially in bad weather conditions. The vessel is equipped with enough space and facilities for diving support, surveys etc.

